Scale your business
without administrative distractions

ZEDRA.COM

As companies expand across jurisdictions, global operations become increasingly difficult to coordinate.

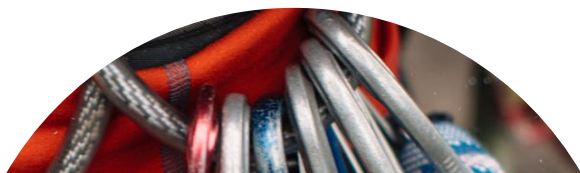

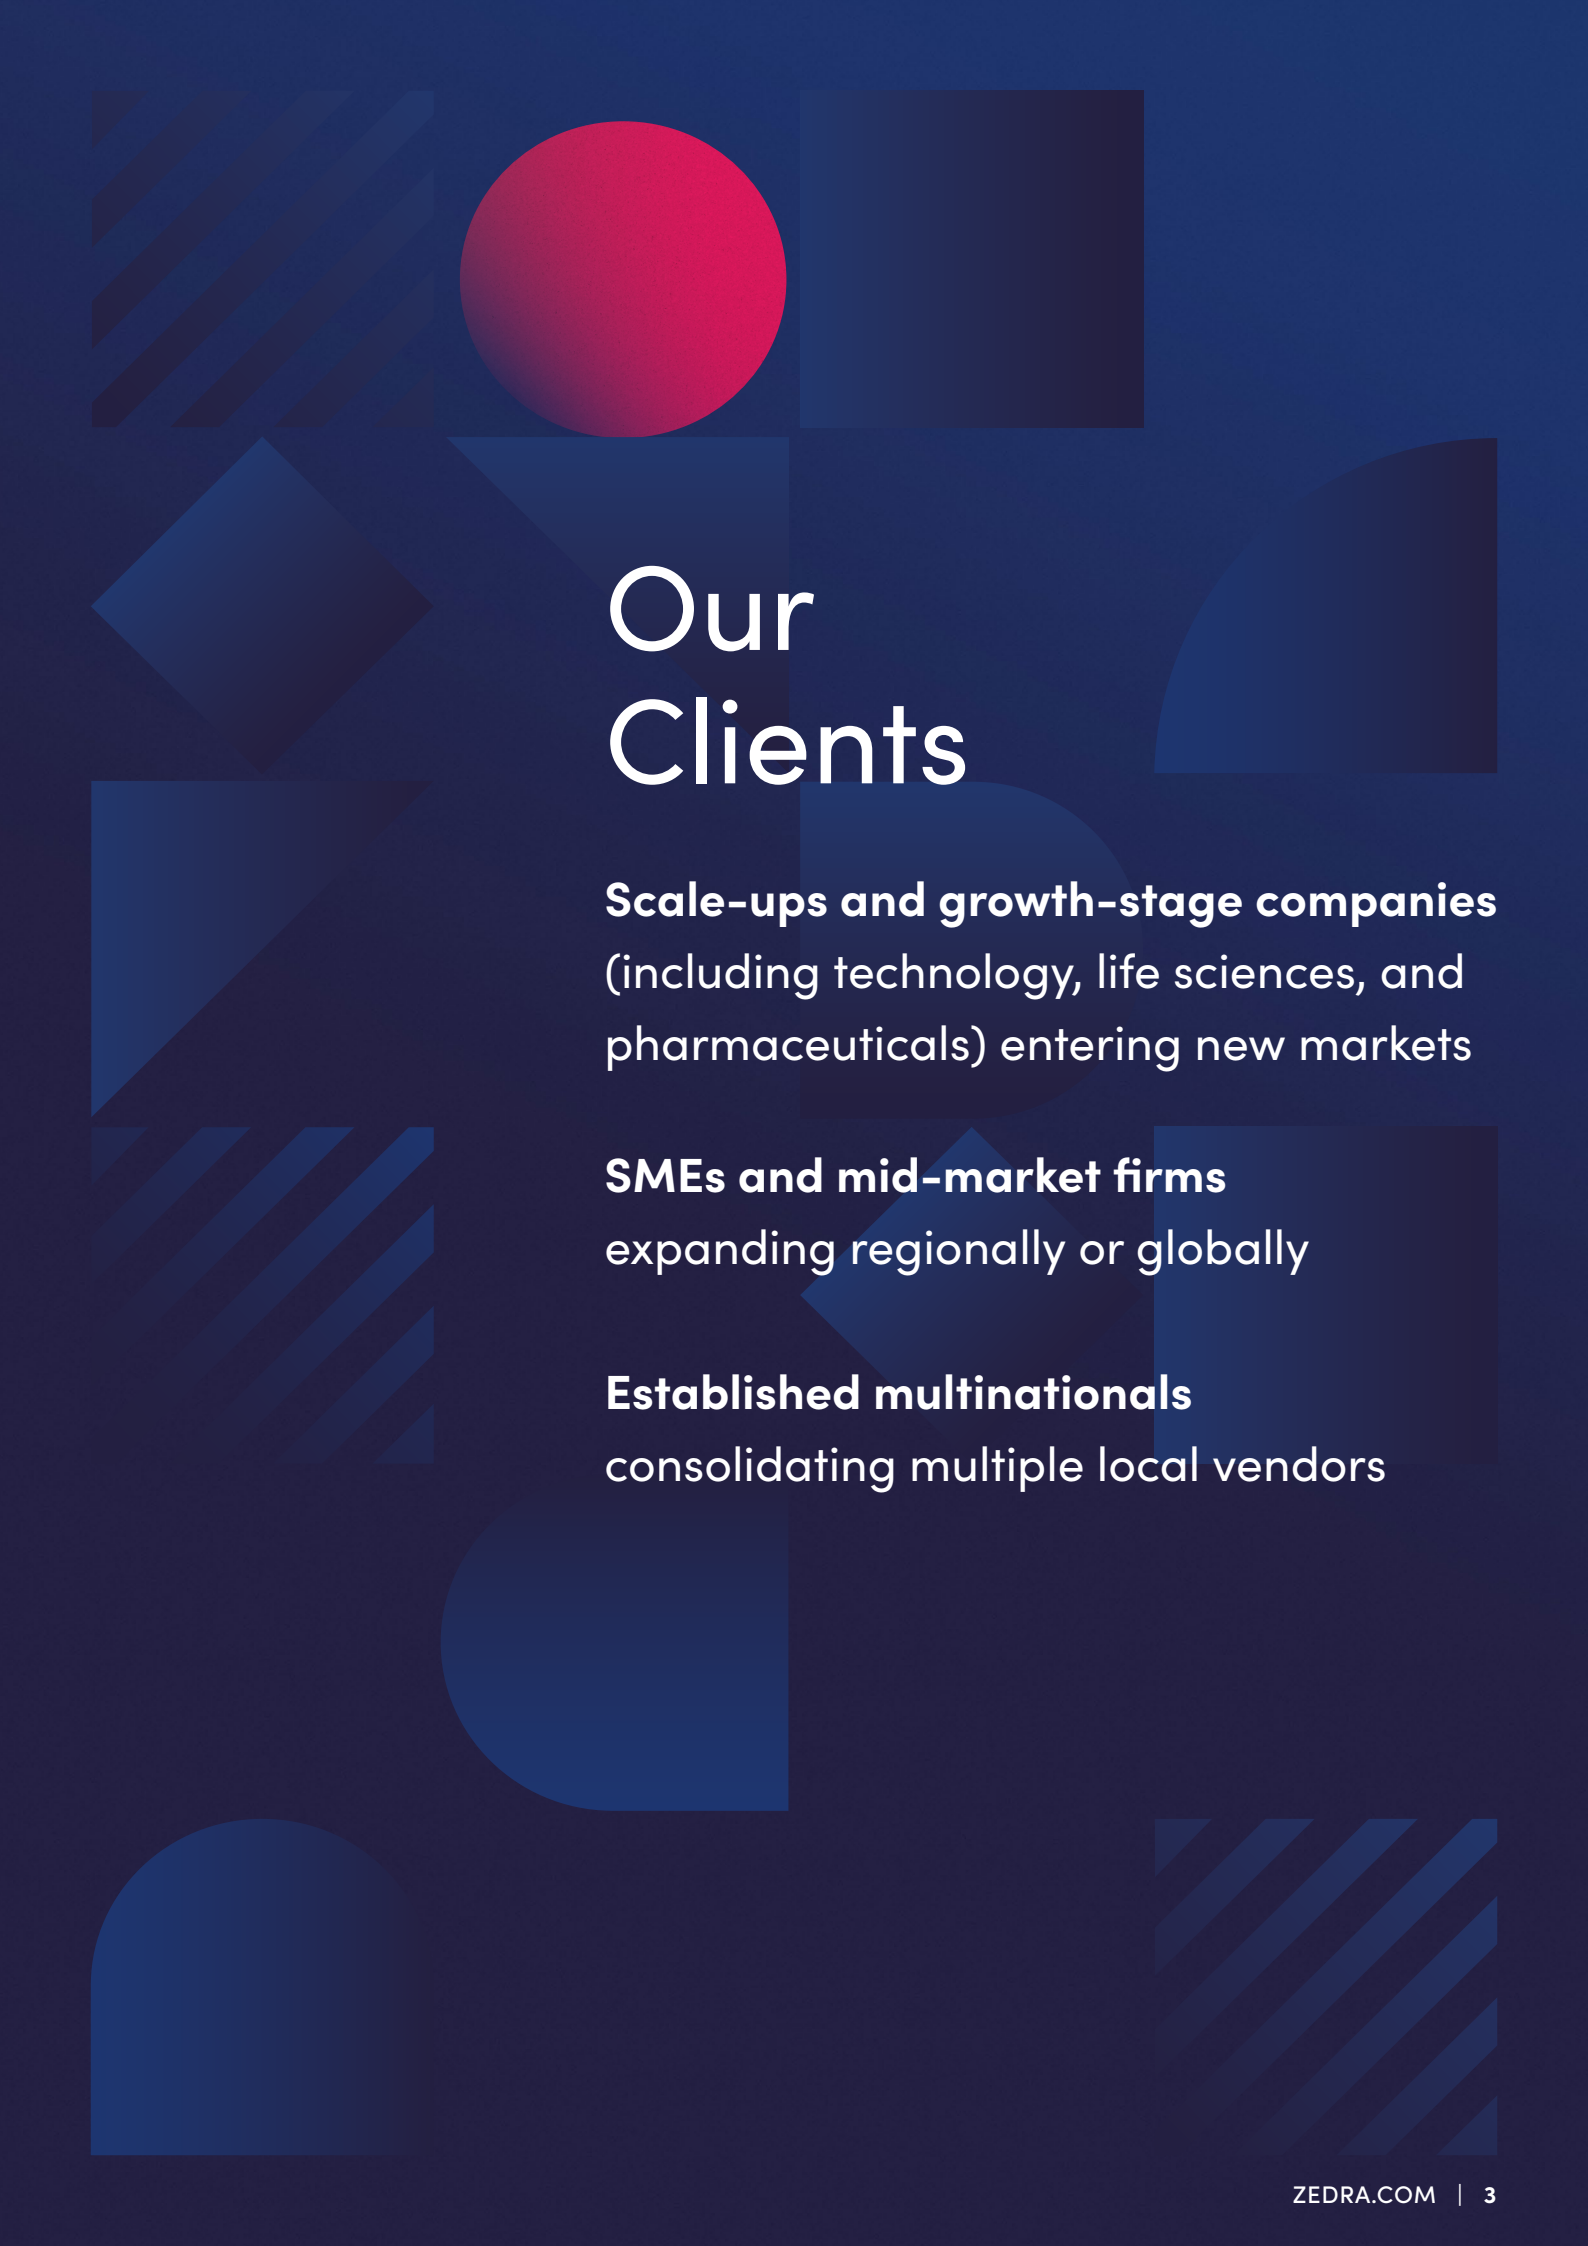

Using different providers in each market often leads to inconsistent processes, limited visibility, and added administrative burden.

Teams are typically lean, and without a procurement function, buying cycles tend to be fast and informal, making it harder to maintain consistent oversight across multiple external partners.

Many organisations also lack the scale to bring payroll and compliance in house, resulting in an ongoing reliance on fragmented external support.

We provide a 360-degree Global Expansion service from set-up to exit, and everything in between.

Our Clients

Scale-ups and growth-stage companies
(including technology, life sciences, and pharmaceuticals) entering new markets

SMEs and mid-market firms
expanding regionally or globally

Established multinationals consolidating multiple local vendors

ZEDRA delivers a coordinated, one stop solution that simplifies how organisations manage their international entities through a single provider model.

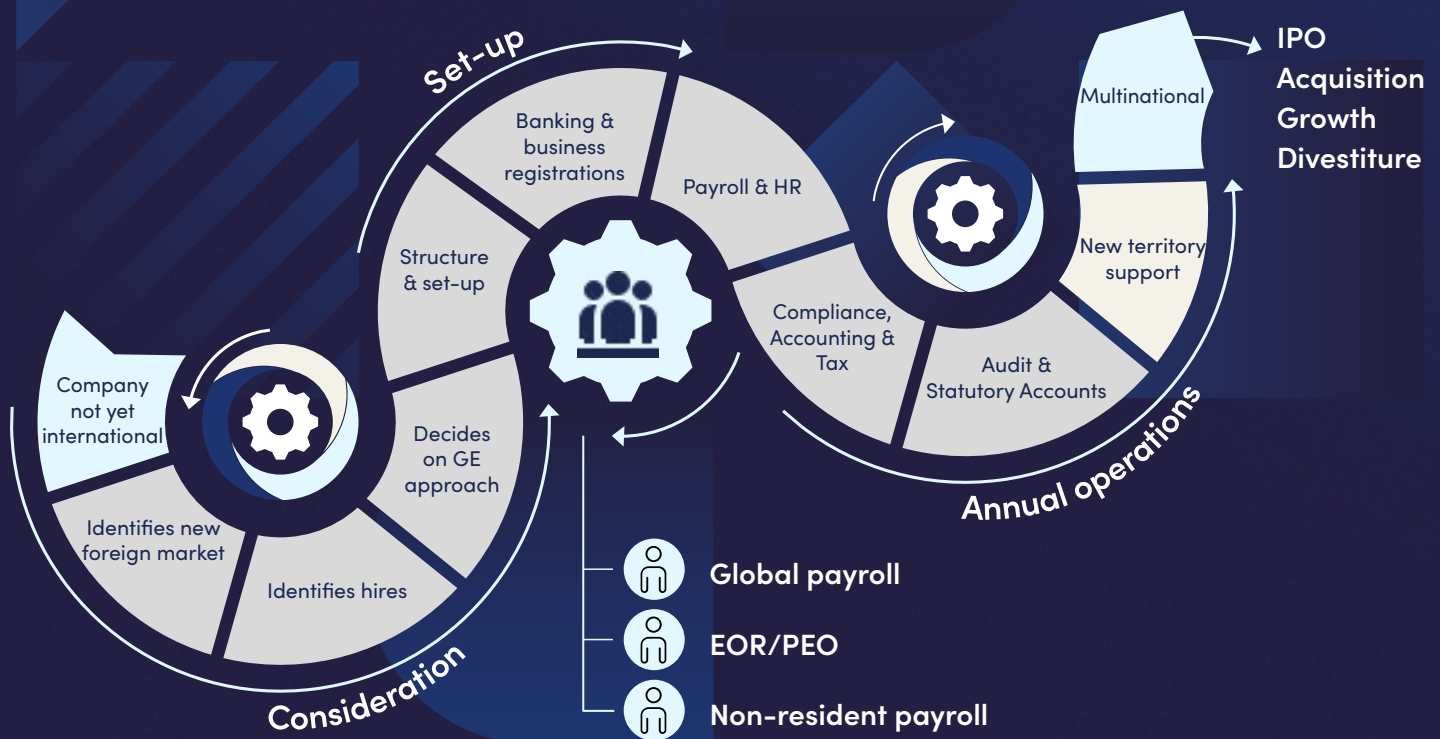

We use technology led data transfer to improve how information moves across markets, giving clients greater consistency and clearer oversight.

We manage payroll and compliance obligations across all jurisdictions, ensuring all filings and deliverables are completed accurately and on time so clients can stay focused on their priorities.

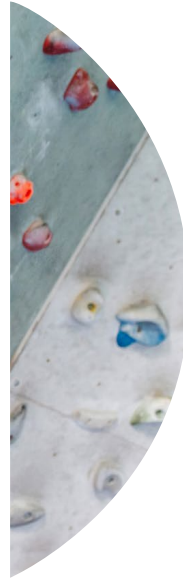

Our model fits naturally into existing finance and HR processes, reducing friction and making coordination across markets easier.
